Ah, now I see what happened. That was my mistake. I misread an email about Matt being the POC – POC to provide information to, not send people to. My sincerest apologies to you and Matt.

Rebecca – I know things are absolutely crazy. I was trying to point out that your email yesterday about the visit from the EPA Administrator (at the bottom of this string) says, “For more information, please contact Matt Holden at holdenmj@ci.durango.co.us” – Matt is an engineer with the City of Durango and is not the appropriate contact for more information on the Administrator’s visit.

That’s all I wanted to bring to your attention. ☺

Hi Sherri,

Please let me know who it is you would like me to remove from my distribution list.

Thanks,

Hi Sherri,

I have been updating our contact list based on people I've been asked to add to that list. Please let me know who and I'll update accordingly. Apologies if that caused any confusion.

Hi Rebecca! I'm wondering why you listed one of the City's staff people as the contact for yesterday's event?
